WEDDINGS

Surrounded by awe-inspiring natural beauty, Black Butte Ranch has been a preferred Central Oregon wedding destination for over 40 years. Our unparalleled mountain backdrop, farm-to-table catering, abundant amenities, custom accommodations, spectacular ceremony sites and attentive staff ensure that your extraordinary day is everything you imagined.

FAMILY REUNIONS

Three generations of vacationers call Black Butte Ranch their favorite family vacation spot. This kind of loyalty doesn't happen overnight but by consistently meeting – and exceeding – expectations during every visit. Families come back, year after year, and encourage this Oregon vacation tradition because there's no better place for families and friends to enjoy the abundance of year round Oregon recreation than Black Butte Ranch.

MEETINGS

Black Butte Ranch is ideally situated to host small to mid-sized corporate groups for workshops, retreats, meetings and events. Our convenient location and natural setting is perfectly balanced with comfortable accommodations, updated meeting spaces, distinctly Northwest dining and catering options and abundant outdoor activities. Once your group is here, the choices are unlimited.

THE LODGE GALLERY: Featured Artists

MAY: Jani Hicks

Jani studied drawing, intaglio and lithography, and for the past 35 years she has taught in several schools districts in the Willamette Valley where she has helped schools with fund-raising projects via the arts. She is represented by the Imprint Gallery at Cannon Beach and teaches printmaking in their newly remodeled studio. Jani's work is included in the Collections of the Gilkey Graphic Arts at the Portland Art Museum, the Anchorage Museum and the Multnomah County Library.

JULY: Quilt Month

Enjoy a beautiful display of handcrafted quilts throughout the Lodge made by the Black Butte Ranch quilting group. The annual quilt show at Black Butte Ranch is Friday, July 13th, featuring quilts made by local artists, handmade pot holders, opportunity quilt drawing and a $15 deli lunch buffet. All proceeds benefit the Art Guild Scholarship Fund.

JUNE: Al Bernstein

This show, entitled BLACK BUTTE STARSCAPES, is a visual essay on the beauty of the Ranch under the stars. If you are up, you can see Al lurking around the Ranch with photo equipment in the dead of night, or in the daytime, walking with his wife, Luahna and their Chocolate Lab, Mocha, or playing in one of the pools with their grandchildren.

AUGUST: Featured "Art at the Ranch" Artists

Labor Day weekend marks the annual "Art at the Ranch" event, a Black Butte Ranch Art Guild fundraiser that supports the Sisters School District visual arts programs. Featured artwork from artists participating in the event will be on display at the Lodge Gallery.

SEPTEMBER: Don Zylius

Don moved West from the urban confines of Waukegan, IL to Central OR 1970. Don started with Commercial art endeavors his first few years in Bend, but the region's natural splendor proved irresistible. Gradually he found himself more and more immersed in the delicate wildlife and floral paintings for which he is now so recognized. His works have received national attention. Two of Zylius' watercolors hang in the permanent collection at the Roberts Field airport terminal in Redmond, OR.

Black Butte Ranch features two scenic and challenging championship golf courses that deliver an authentic Oregon golf experience. The Glaze Meadow course offers a test that will appeal to fans of both classic and modern golf design, with five sets of tees on every hole to accommodate players of all skill levels. The $3.75M redesign completed in 2012 by architect John Fought turned Glaze Meadow into a 7,007-yard classically inspired gem. Big Meadow, a 7,002-yard course designed by Robert Muir Graves, presents generous fairways, accessible greens, and panoramic views. Every component of the course is integrated into the spectacular mountain setting, providing an unforgettable round regardless of the scorecard.
